

- having an early influence on their careers

- shaping what Cruden want

- investing in a renaissance of Cruden skills

- get them early.....

- that way our business benefits just as much as the apprentice

- new talent does refresh and challenge the status quo in any business

